

Policies governing use of “Penn Experiments” web-based recruitment system.

1. Permission to use the system is revocable at any time.
2. The system may ONLY be used for experiments in which participants are paid for their participation.
3. The system may ONLY be used for experiments which have been approved by the Office of Regulatory Affairs at the of University of Pennsylvania (<http://www.upenn.edu/regulatoryaffairs/IRB.html>).
4. The system may NOT be used for an experiment that uses deception of research participants.
5. Emails may NOT be sent out to the participant pool without prior consent of the recruitment system administrator.
6. When scheduling experiments, you MUST provide all relevant information (e.g., the room number of the experiment), including contact information (phone number and/or email address) for the experimenter.
7. After an experiment is run using the recruitment system, information regarding participation in the experiment must be entered to maintain the accuracy of the database (see the link off of the Experimenter page: “To enter the participant information of an experiment.” Documentation on the use of this feature is pending.)
8. Use of the system entails the reciprocal obligation of aiding in publicizing the recruitment website. Recruitment materials are available from the recruitment system administrator
